

FATHER FAVIO MARÍN MARÍN

SUPERIOR OF THE PORTUGAL-ANGOLA REGION

The Superior General, Father Valdir José De Castro, with the consent of his Council, appointed him in his role on 3 December 2019.

Father Favio, 41 years, was born in Sucre-Santander (Colombia) on 18 November 1978. He entered the Congregation in Bogotá on 2 February 1994. He emitted his first religious vows on 24 January 1998, confirming them on 25 January 2007. He received the priestly ordination on 16 August 2008 in Bogotá by the laying on of hands of Cardinal Pedro Rubiano Sáenz, Archbishop of the Colombian capital.

After completing his philosophical and theological studies at the Buenaventura University in Bogotá and having attended a formation course for the Ibero-American publishers, he was involved in editorial coordination in Colombia since 2006. In 2013, he was appointed Editorial Director, a position he held up until April 2019, when he was transferred to the Portugal-Angola Region as Commercial Director. He was also twice Delegate of the community of the provincial House of Bogotá.

To Father Favio our sincere wish for a fruitful service.
